FENRIS Adjustable Stocks Safety Instruction Guide

Introduction

Thank you for choosing the FENRIS Adjustable Stocks for your Howa 1500 SA/Weatherby SA rifle. This guide provides essential safety instructions and guidelines to ensure the safe and effective use of your new rifle stock. Please read this document carefully before installation and use.

General Safety Guidelines

- Ensure that the stock is compatible with your rifle model before installation.
- Always handle firearms responsibly and in accordance with local laws and regulations.
- Keep the stock and rifle out of reach of children and unauthorized users.
- Regularly inspect the stock for any signs of wear or damage before each use.
- Use only authorized accessories and components with your FENRIS stock to maintain safety and performance.
- Do not modify the stock in any way that may compromise its structural integrity or safety features.
- In case of any accidents or unsafe conditions, report them to the appropriate authorities immediately.

Specific Safety Precautions for Use

- Adjustable Length of Pull (LOP): Ensure the LOP is properly adjusted to fit your shooting style and body size. An incorrect LOP can lead to discomfort and affect accuracy.
- Cheekpiece Adjustment: Adjust the cheekpiece for optimal comfort and alignment with your rifle's sights. A misaligned cheekpiece can hinder your shooting performance.
- Recoil Pad: If adding a heightadjustable recoil pad, ensure it is securely attached to prevent it from coming loose during use.
- Grip Handling: Use the ergonomic honeycomb grip to maintain a firm hold on the rifle. A secure grip helps absorb recoil and improves control.
- Bedding Blocks: Ensure that the bedding blocks are correctly installed to prevent flexing and reduce movement during shooting. This enhances stability and accuracy.
